

iPROMise, is our Web based entrance interview and electronic promissory note product, which helps you manage student loans from the beginning of the student loan process. With iPROMise, students receive notification of their Federal Perkins Loan amount and can go on-line to view their award and accept or decline it.

iPROMise offers your borrowers the opportunity to conveniently complete their entrance counseling interview and e-sign their Master Promissory Note. Your students also can print required Truth-in-Lending documents as well as their Master Prom Note while on-line.

iPROMise* features include:

- On-line entrance counseling
- Master Prom Note presentation and acceptance
- Interactive loan interview questions
- E-sign option
- Truth-in-Lending Disclosure for first time Perkins borrowers
- Total Loan Indebtedness services for borrowers receiving subsequent awards from schools using single award year and multi award year Prom Notes
- Clear and complete instructions for borrowers
- Strict attention to Federal Regulations guidelines
- Your college or university's name on entrance counseling Web pages so your borrowers always understand that you are their lender iPROMise is a perfect solution to help you manage the complete student loan process. It's more convenient for your borrowers and will help alleviate some of the time consuming details associated with the award of Federal Perkins Loans. Coupled with E-Exit, our Web exit interview counseling product, iPROMise helps cover the full spectrum of loan administration.
